NodServntFor #1 Mr. Nod3145 what you did made you NO better then ANY of the cheaters' out there.

#2 You have cheated for a while, because of the way you was doing it was almost pro like.

#3 I hope that they post your Screen Name on here just for you cheating ON AN OPEN SERVER SO WE KNOW WHO YOU ARE!

Ok, Now that I have put that in there... I would think that Mr. Aircraft Killer as well as the others' can agree with what I said.

C&C
Ken

1) He used the cheats to demonstrate how a cheater can still cheat in the game yet be covert at the same time. If he isn't better than the cheaters, why the hell would he share the info on how covert cheaters cheat?

2) So, just because he's careful in using his cheats, it makes him a long time cheater? News flash, dickweed, he isn't a n00b who's yelling "OMGF LUK @ MEE KIL TEH PEEPULZ IN OEN SHTO!!!111 LOLOLOLWTFOMGBBQ". He's a seasoned player who knows how to be discreet, and if you can't figure that out, I weep for the future.

3) He stated that he changed his screenname, so that part is useless.

As for the last comment:

- Aircraftkiller isn't the leader of these forums, nor does he carry the most influence, so attempting to incite a response from him is pointless. Also, he doesn't care one bit about Renegade anymore; he's moved on to modding Half Life 2.

- The "others" consists of a few retards like you who can't see the purpose of this guy's intentions, which is to show people how cheaters can be discreet in their methods.

Honestly, turn on your brain before telling your fingers to hunt and peck the keyboard.
