So for the past few days there have been almost no good servers and so i have been reduced to watching Amercian Idol and now they have put me in an institution for the Reality TV Challenged people and I can't get out until :

1. Renegade is the most successful game on the planet.
2. Nobody is fighting on the forums
3. My husband stops bitching that there are no good servers up.
4. oh ya and someone teaches me how to play Ren, cook dinner and do the laundry at the same time.....

Love ya all!!!!
