glyde51The Daily Show9/11 + x = Shut the fuck up

x = Whatever we say

It may have been for comedy purposes, but it's not far from the truth. 9/11 became a turning point for the US Administration to start "The War on Terror". In my personal view, the ignorance is on those who thought it was "to liberate the people or Iraq". Wars are made for political GAIN, not to spend millions of dollars to go and help out third-world countries. Otherwise we would be making efforts in places like Africa and helping there, but that's not really being done much.

What does 9/11/2001 have to do with an idea explored in 1994?? Besides, who was president in 1994? Clinton. Why don't we blame him for the idea?

Note: I'm not "blaming Clinton" for the idea. Just remember that if this were thought of in 2004 instead, then some of your would be screaming "omg Bush is dumb look at this idea".
