xC4pRoXIf a cop illegally breaks into a house and finds a pound of cocaine, he might've caught a dealer or distributor. HOWEVER, he still ILLEGALLY broke into the house. Just because he got lucky and found something doesn't make it any less illegal...

If i drove to your houses, was in the process of killing your entire family. Would you go with Javvax's approach and

A) Not do anything about it, because even though i killed your family, if you kill me, its still against the law because killing is wrong 11121111

B) Go with my approach and defend yourself and help those in need of assistance. ???

Dude, if your going to come out with some kind of story problem, at least make it relevant. YOU CAN NOT compare fucking drugs and breaking into a house with "breaking" into a nation , overthrowing a dictator, and freeing thousands and thousands of people. You just can't.
