cowmisfitxC4pRoXIf a cop illegally breaks into a house and finds a pound of cocaine, he might've caught a dealer or distributor. HOWEVER, he still ILLEGALLY broke into the house. Just because he got lucky and found something doesn't make it any less illegal...

Dude, if your going to come out with some kind of story problem, at least make it relevant. YOU CAN NOT compare fucking drugs and breaking into a house with "breaking" into a nation , overthrowing a dictator, and freeing thousands and thousands of people. You just can't.

And YOU can't compare the value of life with a drug bust. Apples and oranges.
