All you are doing is spouting off at the mouth. If you want, I can just re-make the anology into "When America starts getting bombed again, the other nations in the world will look at the war in Iraq, look at the people in Cuba being held in inhumane conditions, and simply say 'What's in it for us'".

Some of those people are from a the terrorist nation knows as the United Kingdom. None of them have been given ANY rights. No Freedom of Speech, No freedom to do anything, say anything. What I want to know is since when is was ok and moral to detain, torture and basically step-on other people to protect this country? All without any proof too. I wouldn't be surprised if they BECAME terrorists when they came out.

And people wonder why I don't like the Labour Regime under Premier Bliar.
