Just wanna give a general hello to the community, as I will be hopefully *crosses fingers* rejoining it soon. I SO cant wait to get back on my cable. Anyway, as I've been away from the community for awhile I've got a couple of questions.....

1. Are the DOM-Guild servers still up?
2. Where can I get teamspeak?
3. Ummm...well actually thats it really

Some of yall might remeber me (Hawkins19) especially if you played on swami's or the dom guilds alot, if not ah well thats cool too. Ohhh wait right one more question, where can I get REOL? Yes yes I know I could do a search of the forum, but I'd rather not tax my rather cranky dial up connection too much. Well ppl hope to frag...er..see yall online real soon.
