IRON-FARTcsskillerBlazerAircraftkiller

Gemstones, crystal ball, quartz pendulum and pieces of rose quartz and raw emerald

WTF is that stuff for??

To keep yourself entertained looking at "shiny things" OO, shiny lol

OR

Maybe to start a fire with?

If theres a Nuclear War and everything is wiped out, the new civilizations will need something to trade.

Honestly, I have no clue. Maybe they burn well? I know that if you try and light a diamond, it will burn very well. Maybe they will be used as beacons or signals?

I'd say to help start fires, scratch against things, or sell or something. Im gonna drive myself crazy with that one.
