GeTSm0keDnoodlesJeremy It doesn't work well if a guy has to do a high pitch voice. .

LOL, I agree definetly!

ever try any audio editing apps?

audcity is a free one i can think of...

(edit) just watched.. they are funny as hell..

but get your voice volumes all the same damn lol

and ya the mobius guy was a bad recording

WE had a few problems recording the first time, but we got all the kinks out for the second episode. We tried to use Teamspeak to record the sounds, and it didn't work well.
