The common mistake with "it's" is one of my biggest pet-peeves. The difference between "it's" and "its" is very big, and it actually can mis-guide the reader a little or confuse them and cause them to re-read the whole sentence. This mistake is serious. Please take it seriously and stop considering all people who correct you "OMG GARMER NAZEES!!11".

USING IT CORRECTLY TAKES LIKE 0.000001 SECONDS OUT OF YOUR LIFE, STOP BEING IDIOTS.
