
Subject: Voting, Apple Falafel, and Yugo
Posted by cowmisfit on Wed, 02 Feb 2005 23:28:56 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

JavaxcxcowmisfitLov thy neighbour? I think thats a term you took wrong when you decided you liked to bat both ways. It means love your neighbors however if they do soemthing wrong, and committed a serious sin such as murder someone, or have gay sex with guys then well, that term flies out the window as far as im concerned.

"Love thy neighbour" is not meant to be conditional. God asks that you at least try in lieu of circumstance.

I love the bible, its the one thing that no one interperets (spelt wrong) quite the same and you can't say im wrong.

Mabey in your little fantasy world were everyone follows the rules and people dont' die, but in reality we like to say if you are a bad person we don't have to love you. Aka it is conditional. If someone came in and raped / killed your entire family , lets say it was GMM taht did this since he can rape all of them, would you hate them?? Or would you sasy "oh nos i forgive him it ssays in bible its nonconditional1111"
