Looks good...

The treads have the wrong texture, and it's too dark, it needs to be a little brighter.

It's too short, it needs to be long enough to have the hand rail, steps, and the door just behind where the arms fold back at.

Most of the texture is way too clean, especially those arms and the sides.

The two rollers should be a little farther apart.

That thing on top needs to be rounded a little on the top edges, and a lot towards the front.
