Hi all
i did has got RG working fine since i did used 1.0 rg and after update till CP1.

today i did format my PC and now i did tryed to re install CP1.

i did run installation and it askem me for game.exe position. i give it and start install. it end complete installation, but when i open renegade it work but i don't see the pannel of RG where to lick "renegade"

i try play the game and during the game load it show me like if CP is working with all link and things on the right corner.

but when i'm ingame and write !rg mlai it says i'm not using RG.

i have no skins or any mod and i still don't understand why the window of RG doesn't appear here a ss when i tryed reistall CP1

i also edit my register and changed number from "1" to "0" what is the problem i have got because i don't see window and cannot run RG????

i look forward for the help and i'm sure all will be sorted p.s.= i w8 will this problem solve before install again FDS & brenbot.
