Im just wondering if you guys are looking into fixing 2 bugs which are quite annoying especially one of them

THe first being the nick bug. I hate it. When you try to join a server under your normal nick and the start button is greyed out. And you can only join under another nick

THe second, is after you are kicked from a game, when someone pages you, it doesn't open a window, you just hear a 'yo'.

Im just curious why these happen and if they are being looked at.
