I actually find it quite fun to play against hackers. Speedhackers are the best...they fly around like they are invincible and I headshot them during their 1 second "cooldowns" between super speeds. Now if they have an aimbot it gets gay, but I can still sometimes kill them. My human skill > their systems attempt at skill. I love watching A CHEATER call me a hacker just becaue my right hand has such insanly fast reflexes that he stands no chance....anywho, just my $.02

Peace out,
