Make a new topic for this crap about WOL being down. Its not the reason why me or some other people cannot log in!

I attempted to login while WOL was up and running, now this crap about it being down has got NOTHING to do with it so please, many people are refering to this topic for help while every 1 else thinks they know it all by saying WOL is down. It probably is down but thats not why I couldnt login a few weeks ago, trying daily to get on.

If you wanna go talk about WOL being down, do it else where.
