half3lif3l will wait and see until new cards will come out always a good choice but this is only limited by your budget.

I never bought a single top of range GFX card til my x800, and i only bought that because i had some spare ca$h - i was actually planning on getting a 9800 pro.

hope you get something nice, and if you can be really patient wait for the x900 - they make the x800s look like voodoo3 gfx cards.
