How do you stand those ridiculous names people have...? They are so stupid, extremely long, screws up the tabbed player stats. I have never understood the benefits. You also have to use third party software rather than native support. Sounds like a poorly applied band-aid.

(I have played on GSA before, the 4 months of the mutli player demo)

Ummm... I don't know what you are talking about. The stat stretching thing happened on the demo, but renegade was patched since v1.019. That stuff doesn't happen anymore.

And people can't have absurdly long screwed up names. There is a limit.
