I hate the idea of torture, and I could never be one to inflict it on someone else. I can't justify it, and I won't justify it. I can, however, say that it's a necessary evil. If it saves countless American AND Iraqi lives, then I say it's all the more worth it. If we can somehow predict and even prevent suicide bombers and ambuses, we can save many lives while successfully restoring order in Iraq. While I'll agree that this wasn't achieved in this case, it is in many other cases.
