Do you remember this guy called Maytridy from the old forums he mailed me a few minutes ago with this, I was wondering if you could help him.

I have an account, but i lost my password. When i go to the lost password page i get this: "Sorry, but your password cannot be retrieved because your account is currently inactive. Please contact the forum administrator for more information." I put the administrator's s\n's on my AIM buddy list, but they arent on right now, and they dont supply an e-mail address. Any ideas?

His e-mail is Maytridy@rochester.rr.com he shouldn't mind me giving it out as it's in his member profile anyways. I'm sure he appreciates this
