Yeah, you'll do something... If by that you mean you'll do nothing at all, because there's no law in existence that covers what you're complaining about.

Please take pictures when the police tell you to leave because they have actual crimes to worry about.

Know why I said that? Because I haven't done anything illegal. Blaming me for showing a piece of shit texture you placed in a public folder that was discovered by someone else is like blaming spoons for making Rosie O'Donnell fat.

No one stole anything you made. Like the idiot you are, you allowed your team's work to be placed in an insecure folder... Now you're going to go to the police?

Your idiocy knows no bounds!
