Lol, you can't, he hasn't done anything illegal. Firstly, he didn't get it from the server, Fatcat did, they both said that he did a couple times in that thread. He isn't using your private work. And posting your texture on the internet isn't illegal.

Even what Fatcat did wasn't illegal, he didn't break into it and steal it since it's a public folder (not passworded), anyone could have.

Besides it being Aircraftkiller and that he posted your texture, why is this such a big deal? It's completely worthless without the model the UVW mapping was made for.
