Star Trek, a copy of Shit Wars? Oookay, nevermind the fact that Star Trek came out way before Lucas even had the drunken gleam in his eye that was to become Star Wars.

Nevermind the fact that Star Trek is based on peaceful exploration of our galaxy and furthering the evolution of mankind as a whole with other races in an attempt to show what the future might be like.

Nevermind the fact that Star Trek has about as much similarity to Shit Wars as Red Alert has to Red Alert 2.

Oh, and the whole problem that Star Trek was developed and produced long before Star Wars as I said earlier.
