genetixcowmisfitgenetixU927I think cowmisfit ate too much wall candy when he was a kid.

He is a little kid...

Back to the whole POINT of this topic. I think it will be way better for the dead6 team to be able to follow themselves and not have to worry about other groups. With the team they have they got all the skill they need.

by the way, this thread proves how EVERY thread ACK posts in eventually turns into a bashing/flaming hellhouse.

Back to what I have said before now. ACK if your gonna stay here atleast don't act like a jackass and make yourself fucking usefull.

Im 17, not a little kid. Now, go tell mommy you got around the internet blocker so she can re-activate it and save you from any immotinal scarring myself or ack's post have done to you.

Almost every single post ACK has made in the last 6 months have all been a bunch of BS.

ANd im sure mister 90 post has read every post over the last 6 months :rolleyes:

I just was outside and acked up some taco bell in the front yard, nasty shit.
