Aircraftkiller a.k.a. ACKIn our view it's a great help to that person telling them that Reborn sucks and that you should get rid of it.

Aircraftkiller is right, our advice works. If he doesn't have it installed, it can't exactly keep having the same problem, now can he? I didn't think so.

Plus, did I berate him for his choice of mod? No, I just told him what me (and the majority) think of the current Reborn release. Even you two can't disagree that it's quite a bit sub par. Sure, some may find it entertaining, but I know it wouldn't be the gameplay that does it for me. I'd be laughing at the horrible workmanship. Plus, just so you two don't start accusing me of "bashing" Reborn because of some of the current members of their team, I'll just point out that I never did make a reference to the current team. I don't hold them responsible for the work that the old team did, but I do hold them responsible for allowing that version to be downloaded and attempted to be played.
