I don't know what more you could possibly expect. It is a nice clean layout, one color scheme, and a cool logo, that is a little pixelated. (which I will fix).

Maybe if I had some support and some ideas from other people instead of people dogging my site, then I could possibly make it worth while to see in your eyes.

Give me some ideas, not bad comments. I never said you would like it either, but most people I have talked to seem to have liked it.

But, like I said, give me some ideas, not bad comments.
