Hello, I was requesting FDS Serial numbers for the eight ( nicks above, and I get the following: a000000mc FAILED All FDS Serial numbers have been allocated please contact Westwood Online Support.

Is there a reason why you are wanting us to contact you? Because most of the time, a generator creates something. In these cases, the generator is supposed to make FDS Serial numbers. Not hand out already made ones. And stupid errors like this set you as a bad habit. Now I don't like what you (EA) have done with Westwood. You basically screwed up everything. It was fine before EA stepped in. I have only one game from EA. And it's C&C Renegade. The best game created by Westwood. Why can't you (EA) fix something to stay working? Why does it always go down? Why when I'm playing online, have to shut down Westwood Online (WOL)? I love the game, and here you are just screwing it up. There have been no maintenance on anything for Westwood Online. And if you read this (Most likely you won't) I want you to fix the clan page. Why can't you just keep it? It needs to have pictures and links you know.
We can't read all black font on a black page. We tried to be nice to you. We tried as hard as we can. And we would like it to be so nice and updated. If you need, please get someone else on the job. Want to give me access to the clan page? I'll fix it up like it should be.
In case you forget what 'nice' looks like.

Regards, Timothy (Afrog2) Stoyanovski

P.S. It's broken, yet again.
