Sir PhoenixxQuote:Internet Exploder dousnt count as a major browser though
So, how is Internet Explorer, which is used by about 90%, not a major browser?
LOL

Nightma, if you look at the statistics page for a website (any phpnuke website will do), it will show you how many users were using which browser.

In many cases it's not uncommon to see even higher than 95% of people using IE.
