Deathgodflyingfox You can't expect to murder everything with a base level character armed with a short range weapon.

Use a shotgunner and you can certainly expect this.

Amen to that. Whenever I dont have money, I head out with a shotgunner. Im pretty good with the pistol, and Im devastating when in close range. I love taking out havocs when I have no hand, blow their heads out in 2-3 shots, and having them all say "wtf" after i hump their dead body

Edit: Thanks for the tips fox. Even though Ill prolly never use a flamethrower, Ill try first person if I do
