I don't think this is the first; I remember hearing about another woman back in the early ninties in a similar situation to Terri, though the media coverage of that particular story was nowhere near as big as it was in Terri's case.

This was an extremely bad situation that, unfortunately, ended with one of the worse possible outcomes.

May God bless Terri Schiavo and receive her spirit as her life in this world ends and her life in the next begins with Him.

So, SuperFlyingLiberalTool, who needs to die next, since you seem to think you've been endowed with that authority by God himself?
