Ok. I'm off the bed after this. It's 2 in the morning here and I can barley keep my eyes open.

1 The dramallama is the corner stone of any forum. Without it there is no intelligent conversation.

2 J_ball - No hard feelings. (God I can't belive I just typed that.)

Yes I am very amused with my self. I have relatively little time left of this earth and I will be damd if i'm spending mopping around and getting all heated up. I could have defended that argument will the dramallama tied behind my back.

You should always value your opinion. It is part of you. But you should only express it to the point of your understanding, and intelligence getting angry wont help you. An old saying goes. 'It's better to keep your mouth closed and be thought a fool, then to open your mouth and remove all doubt.' So chill.'

Not every point is ridicules. Insulting though is. And I am sorry for my previous posts, I didn't mean any harm by them. I do not think ill of any one for one or two off hand comments. When I am wrong I take it like man. When I am ill informed I admit to it. Life is too short.

The artist who makes no mistakes. Makes nothing.

I have had way to much to drink. I am going to read this post tomorrow, and will cringe. Oh well.
