You guys are all so full of shit it's seeping out of your ears. Don't give me this Christian-Republican, "I'm morally superior" bullshit. You don't know Terri, and when it comes down to it, you don't give a shit about her since her death doesn't directly affect you in any way at all. Terri was declared dead this morning, but nothing has changed as far as her level of awareness is concerned. How DARE you compare a 15 year old boy to a Nazi concentration camp soldier? Being brain dead ALREADY is different from being GIVEN pain killers IN PREPARATION for being starved. What a fucking awful analogy.

Quote: say we all grab our forks, spears, and torches and jump SuperFlyingEngi. Then we'll tie him to some stray telephone pole in Wisconsin and video tape him die of starvation.

Then we'll make up bullshit on how he couldn't see, hear, or suffer from any of it! w00t!

YEAH! RIGHT ON! That's justice at its best. Especially seeing how Terri's husband actively beat up his wife and got her to a brain dead state. I think he ACTUALLY had a pitchfork while he was doing it too!

Stop making shitty analogies.
