Seeing as how there have been new members joining since the last time I posted this, I thought I'd revive it under a clean topic.

Be warned that when you play it, it will be loud. For some reason it was only at this volume I could get it to be heard on my Renegade. If you want it quieter, run Windows sound recorder, and lower the volume that way.

It's a great thing to experience when you kill someone with a C4 that had been thrown.

For those who are curious, yes that is my laugh.

Once again, thanks to Crimson for hosting this.
