Um, ok, if it's the AI dropping the FPS, then remove them and see where it is. It sounds to me like you're admitting you can't get the FPS any better than ACK did.

You didn't come up with the name, either -- you ripped it off from Westwood as well... how does that make you any better than him?

And by the way, the computer is mine. It's a P4 1.7 with a Mobility Radeon 7500 and 256 MB RAM. Those screen shots were taken with good FPS... sometimes I got 28, but mostly I got 13-14 and sometimes spiked down to 0-2. Yes, 0 fucking FPS while it tried to poll stuff.
