IRON FARTIs EA obliged to stop making the game or something?

I hope they are forced to stop or at least change aspects of the game. From my moral view, I don't think they have any right to ruin a classic movie. That is very retarded of EA. Their lack of creativity to make something new astonishes me.

unfortunatly, not unless Paramount Pictures says to stop (pending how the sale of the Inetellectual Property was done). Coppola most likely does not have ownership of the moive rights, as it would most likely have been part of the deal with Paramount that the studio retained the rights.
