Bull is an idiot, don't mind him... He'll probably take this post off ignore and respond to it, knowing how he's acted in the past. There's no reason to take his criticism with any seriousness because having an idiot criticize someone with intelligence is like listening to SuperFlyingEngie criticize President Bush, Engie is retarded and in no way has any ground to speak against the President as if he knew WTF he were talking about.

So yeah, Bull, keep responding to posts... That was his entire point, and you pretty much validated it by even responding to me to begin with. You ARE an idiot, just like the rest of these forum newcomers - don't pretend to be anything but, it's not that hard to see through the facade you put up.
