JoeyAhem....

EVERY map ack has made ive edited, RA1 mod ive majorly edited, working on your models to scaledown size and poly count to use in generals.

so im taking, but not releasin to public....Im not TO criminal.

ACK, you must be a rich kid with no life who has fools for friends.... thats why you wanna boss us around... but still thats clearly glacier...

ALSO.....Its NOD now, EA's newest items have NOD al over it....not Nod.... AKA: Joy Ride's new figures i got, N-O-D.

my advice ack, take a long walk off a short plank with cement shoes and a piece of meat around your neck for the little fishies.....

You say that he has no life? If i'm not mistaken, it is you who are taking the time to load and change these maps for no reason other than to impress yourself.

So what if he is Rich? What the hell do you find so bad about being Rich? OH, I see, so you would prefer being a beggar on the streets, asking for money than having millions of dollars.
