j_ball430 If I didn't think you were an idiot before now, what you just said sealed the deal.

Man reach all the way back to 1992 for that one?

Dont get me wrong, it is a very wrong situation and shouldnt happen in the common stream of daily life. What i said above was obviously ment to be a comical comment and in reality the kid shouldnt be tormented by people for it. (Dont want another one of those star wars kids suicide situations)
