I have a new pc and i didn't install it.

If it was still being updated i would have... But it isn't. That's why i say it's "dead".

And why do i still play renegade? That's also not being updated right?

Renegade is a game not a mod.

Renegade has many more players.

Renegade has many more servers.

Renegade has people making things for it.

Renegade has uber suxx0rz n00b cannons! ... wait that's a bad thing... oh well.

As for server sided moding... I like it. It gives normal renegade a bit of a new look for once.
