Where did I get the money for the upgrades for my pc? Well I worked my ass off. I did yard jobs for tons of people and my uncle paid me 200 to fix his pc. His pc motherboard had problems directly on the circuit board. Not sure if I stated that correct but anyway, I had to spend about 4 hours sauderling all the broken spots back together. I don't know what he did to his pc but the circuit board was totally jacked. He gave me 200 because he is very generous.

Now, back on topic please.
