AircraftkillerGotta love it when you rip off the TS menu because you can't replicate it yourself.

The infantry animations are all stock Renegade, notice a part where a soldier is using his arm to wipe his mouth off. That's wonderful, show us a bunch of animations that barely apply to Recorn: The Ultimate Corn Harvest! Especially ones that don't even fit a soldier wearing a full head helmet.

It's also amusing how some of the animations show the shoulder armor clipping into the soldiers' arms. Great forethought in making those characters!

If those are your only complaints, it seems like Reborn did a pretty good job with this update.
