kinghigh1In the beginning I was ok with the war, now its over and we the U.S.A losing troops by the hundreds every week. I don't make any extra money for joining that army shit. Hell fighting for Bush is like committing suicide, Why fight in a war were you know the chances of you dying are 1 out of every 20 troops. I'd rather smoke all day then join the army, Do remember the Old Days when leaders and kings help fight in battle, now they sit at home, safe and order you around. Shit with all our soldiers gone,dead, or hurt .

Who will Fight in the war against N.Korea, cause it's coming. U.S.A. so weak right now , It's just a matter of time before someone strike our weak ass homeland(usa) again.

So Back To The Topic, Do You Think Fighting For President Bush Is Worth Your Life?

Fighting for HIM as in his life as a normal man, No. If he was assasianted THEN he is worth fighting for because that involves a attack on the office of President of the United States and the nation itself no matter who the person in office is.

Now, we are not fighting for him. We are fighting to defend America and its freedom and security. We are fighting to kill the people who ordered and carried out / harbor / fought for the MURDER of 3000 innocent americans on 9/11 and thousands of others around the world. We are fighting to not only protect our freedom, but spread it to others accross the globe and stop the senseless murder of thousands of innocent people in countries such as Iraq were suddam ordered killings left and right, not just killings but out right tourtcher and attacks on his own people for nothing more than religious diffrences.

That you idiot, is worth dying for.
