gbullAre you incinuating that you could have come up with a plan to have survellience over every inch of the Iraqi border before we even got there?

Before we even got there?

What do you mean by that? When, exactly, did we "get there?" Is it when the first bombs were dropped?

Seriously, if you could give me an accurate estimate of when U.S. military activity of any sort began in Iraq (in other words, "[when we]...got there"), then you must have inside information.

If, that is, by "there," you are referring to Iraq, as a whole. Obviously, I assumed so.

Anyway, I was unaware, but I suppose pre-war reconnaissance was but a thing of my imagination. Honestly now, I think you are underestimating U.S. intelligence. If Saddam decided to start a WMD convoy of ANY sort, trust me, people wouldn't be arguing today about whether or not the war was justified, if you catch my drift.

Besides, come on! Keeping an eye on the Iraqi border? It's not like we're trying to do something outrageous like trying to spell out, say, the IBM logo, with Xenon atoms, right...?

OH WAIT.
