Imdgr8onephlakatonAircraftkillerI rarely lie, so what would I gain from posting this besides personal satisfaction that both DA and Titan1xassrammer are horrible artists, and that Reborn sucks?

In fact it would be in my best interests for a humorous thread were the images recent and not from three months ago. By their own admission, they're not doing any real work on levels because they have no buildings to finish them with. So instead of getting them ready to put in, we get this untextured garbage and levels from Renegade that sucked ass and had no modifications done to them.

Do some fact checking champ, and use some logic.

My god man... how far do you have to go to mask the fact that you ARE the most insecure soul on these boards. Damn dude... chill out and worry about your own mods and stop beating down other people for trying to make something that doesn't meet your specific approval.

I've watched this for years and yet you still hover these forums looking for fights like a 10 year old. You know it's gone to far when he says it...

Ditto.
