j_ball430Could we please NOT derail my thread? That'd be great. kthx.

Back on topic: Continue to post your jealousy at my luck of having floor-level seating at the Skynyrd concert.

chill out i just made your thread interesting

i had 18 tickets to the MTV video music awards in miami

4 floor seats

8 2nd section

6 upper deck

who the hell is leonard skynerd?

jealousy?

you dont WANNA know how much money i made on eBay with those tickets

7 times what cow thinks is a car lol

HydraGeTSm0keDthats kinda thin

not all rappers smoke either.. :rolleyes:

Most of 'em probably do--look at the culture they rap about and perpetuate.

oh and the emo rock bands that sing about

i hate my life

my girl friend left me

my parents hate me

school sucks

i dont have a job

i wanna kill myself

and rap is the music that kills our generation?

rap is all about making money and making a better life for yourself.

instead of sittin and stewing about how bad shit is..

(like all of todays rock)

some people will never understand rap..

and i seem to remeber ALL music artist genres being into drugs

that was my point

(ya i understand he was rhyming cow)
