Subject: please help me with renguard
Posted by Renardin6 on Sun, 29 May 2005 19:27:19 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Do you have more than one computer that uses internet at your home?

If yes, you have then a router. You need to configure it to avoid disconnection.

The firewall of the router and windows xp must be configured too. You can also disable those but your computer won't be secured anymore.

If you have a router, I can explain you how to configure it.