We lost about three hours of posts today after Spoony, aka MaidenTy1, also known as co-owner of "n0n00bs" Renegade servers, decided he would take out his anger on you, the community by trying to delete these forums. Fortunately for you, and unfortunately for him, I have backups taken even 6 hours, so we didn't really lose much at all.

Show your appreciation as you wish. And remember:

[MaidenTy1]: : take a quick peek at renegadeforums. it's been fun
