They use that gimic because it's cool. They are flaunting their money instead of the miserly losers who put it in a bank, never to be used, EVER. Bill Gate's benefactors will not spend 80 billion dollars, THEIR benefactors will not spend 80 billion dollars. That money is being wasted. It's despicable. At least rap artists are buying stretch escalades and platinum diamond encrusted goblets. They aren't squares.
