And believing that there is no "heaven" is as weird as to believe in it...

We just don't know what will happen after death...

"I am not religious..." What does this mean? You don't believe in Jesus, fine me too. There is a bigger thing than religion: The way life really works, and you got absolutely no clue about it...

So your fucking cat just rots in the mud, I guess.

Btw: Our dog killed a dog las month, they are always pissing in death struggle, what an ugly smell.

Cheers...
