only good thing about BF2 is the squad system its the only new thing i have seen apart from the models

it still has its shitty menu system which is fucking annoying when trying to "esc" out of spawn menu and then it takes 10 seconds to load the main menu then another 10 to get back into game and by that time your dead :/

also has its shitty voting system aswell you need 90% of players to vote to get a TKer kicked and only 10% of the players know how to vote >_<

Do not waste your money buying this game its a rip off
